Probe Sale Of Surplus Property At Loss

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The sale of some $3,000,000 worth of surplus property of the veterans' bureau at Perryville, Md., to Thompson and Kelly, Inc., of Boston, for approximately $200,000 was the subject of inquiry today by the senate investigation committee. Lieutenant Commander Charles R. O'Leary, U. S. N., formerly in charge of the bureau's supply division, was recalled as a witness.

A conference held at the bureau on January 24, 1923, in connection with the sale more than three months after the award had been made to Thompson and Kelly, Inc., in competition with two other bidders, formed a principal subject to which attention was directed. Commander O'Leary testified yesterday that Sidney Bleher of Washington, was present at this conference. Bleher was described in the testimony of Elias H. Mortimer, two weeks ago, as a friend of Charles R. Forbes, and as the man to whom Forbes turned when the former director had failed to interest Mortimer in an alleged plan to remove whiskey and narcotics from Perryville.

Commander O'Leary told the committee Forbes had called the conference in connection with charges made by Henry Anchetor that Bleher had been interested in the contract for the sale of the surplus property.

A denial that any of the whiskey or narcotics at Perryville had been removed illegally was made to the committee yesterday by Nelson B. Hendrix, general storekeeper at the supply depot there.

Hendrix asserted that much of the property disposed of at one fifth its cost would have been useful to the bureau and that some of it soon will have to be replaced.

Canadian Province Rejected Prohibition

CALGARY, ALTA, Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press)—Alberta today was in the list of Canadian provinces that has thrown prohibition into the discard, having voted yesterday to permit sale of liquor under control and regulation of the government and to allow the sale and consumption of beer on licensed premises and in the home.

The various degrees of prohibition the electorate had to choose from included one that would have continued the present "dry" law, another that would have permitted sale of beer in licensed hotels and other premises; a third to permit government sale of beer for consumption in private residences and the fourth, which was chosen, to permit government sale of all liquors.

One of the early returns was noted in the fact that the first proposition, calling for absolute prohibition, was second in the number of votes received, only a comparative few favoring the beer measures. This, it was pointed out, indicated that the majority favoring prohibition favored complete prohibition, while those against it were against it entirely.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 6.—Twelve bodies have been taken from the shaft mine of the Raleigh-Wyoming Coal company at Glen Rogers, Wyoming county, in which an explosion occurred this morning and little hope is entertained for thirty men still in the workings, 40,000 of whom reported at noon today.

Sixty-five men were in the mine at the time of the explosion and twenty-three were brought out injured, in addition to the twelve bodies found by the rescue squads, the officials of the department said. Their report, they declared, came from the company's offices at the mine.

Employees Buy Stock

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Nearly half of the 100,000 owners of Armour stock are employees, 40,000 of whom subscribed for 50,000 shares of stock during the past two weeks.

So eagerly have the workers taken advantage of an opportunity to get an interest in the business that the company has been forced to withdraw today its offer of preferred stock, F. Edison White, president, announced.

The stock sale plan offered on a deferred payment basis, was opened October 21, and November had been set as the day it was to be withdrawn.

Day laborers, truck drivers and office workers displayed a surprising financial status, Arthur Reynolds, president of the Continental and National bank, and a director of the company, said.

Typewriter Stuttering No Reason For Invalidating Indictment

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 6.—Because a typewriter stutters while a stenographer is drawing an indictment, is not sufficient reason to invalidate the indictment, the state supreme court held today in reversing the court of appeals of Guyahoga county, in the matter of the conviction of John Brozich of burglary and larceny.

The common pleas court had convicted but the court of appeals reversed because the word "rums" which Brozich had been accused of taking, had been spelled "trungs" in the indictment. Brozich must serve two years in the penitentiary.

CLEVELAND, O., November 6.—(By the Associated Press)—A meeting of the chief executives of the sixteen standard railroad labor organizations "for the purpose of agreeing upon a definite legislative policy in connection with matters to come before the next congress," has been called by Warren S. Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, to meet in Washington Wednesday morning, November 14, Mr. Stone announced today.

Quake Rocks California Towns

CALEXICO, CALIF., November 6.—(By the Associated Press)—Shattered windows, fallen plaster and twisted building foundations remain as reminders to residents of this border city of yesterday's earthquake, the worst in the Imperial Valley in several years.

Three tremors shortly after two o'clock, the first shock of pronounced violence and the other two of diminishing intensity left reinforced concrete pillars in front of one large store bent out of shape and the Virginia Hotel several inches out of place on its foundation.

Bravely, near here, felt the quake, but no damage was reported. No casualties were reported throughout the shaken area.

France And U. S. Are Near Agreement

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

(Copyright, 1923)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—France and the United States are nearer an agreement today on the scope of the proposed inquiry into Germany's capacity to pay reparations than at any time since the original invitation for a conference was issued by Great Britain.

John J. Jusserand, the French Ambassador here, has received a communication from Premier Poincare which makes it clear that the French view is not an insuperable obstacle to the holding of the forthcoming inquiry. On top of this Great Britain has notified the United States Government that Belgium, Italy and Great Britain are now in absolute accord with the American government as to the scope of inquiry of experts.

This leaves the difference between France and the other four principal powers to be ironed out by Secretary Hughes and Premier Poincare through the medium of Mr. Jusserand here and American Ambassador Herried in Paris.

It may take two or three days to work out the compromise but the French Premier is so determined that the inquiry shall be held that he may have assumed the differences of opinion will be solved by a formula acceptable to all sides.

Premier Poincare in his latest communication to the American government makes the following declaration in substance:

FIRST: The question of withdrawing or maintaining of French troops in the Ruhr shall not be a subject for discussion by the proposed commission of experts.

SECOND: The inquiry shall embrace the present capacity of Germany (Continued On Page Four)

Silence In Capital On French Position

PARIS, November 6.—(By the Associated Press)—Premier Poincare today received Ambassador Jusserand's cable report of his conversation with Secretary of State Hughes in Washington yesterday. A French conversation is described as friendly but no further indication of the American government's attitude is given in official quarters.

WASHINGTON, November 6.—(By the Associated Press)—The Washington government presumably was informed in detail today of the position of France with respect to the proposed new inquiry into the reparations question. Whether Ambassador Jusserand in the lengthy conversation in which he presented the views of his government to Secretary Hughes yesterday had indicated any possibility of a recession in its stand for restricting the scope of the study by economic experts had not been disclosed.

A veil of official silence has been thrown over this latest development in the situation. Neither the French

Klan And Sunday Closing Big Issues

COLUMBUS, O., November 6.—(By the Associated Press)—While local mayoral contests in which the Ku Klux Klan issue is dominant, are expected to furnish chief interest in today's elections, two state-wide issues also are adding keenness to the balloting. They are the Taft taxation bill and the workmen's compensation amendment which would set up a bar against employers, who are protected in the workmen's compensation fund, being sued for damages by injured workmen as a result of violation of some safety requirements.

Besides the Ku Klux Klan issue in the Youngstown mayoralty fight, there is the added interest of an officer removed by Governor Donahue for law enforcement, seeking endorsement of the voters for chief executive of the city. Former Police Chief Jas. W. Wadsworth, removed by the governor, is now in a fierce contest with his opponents is Charles Scheide, who has been openly endorsed by the Klan, and another, W. J. Williams, has been endorsed by a citizens committee.

Anti-Klan forces are divided among Williams, Wadsworth and Minkdon. Williams also is a candidate for re-election.

The Klan has taken an interest in State-wide measures urging defeat of all three constitutional proposals, which besides the compensation proposal are to eliminate the words "white male" from the basic law, and to authorize the secretary of state to publish official arguments on constitutional and referred measures.

In addition to the Taft taxation bill, voters also are approving or rejecting its kindred measure the Alburgh bill, and an old age pension bill initiated by the state federation of labor and the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

The Democratic state organization has thrown its forces against the Taft and Alburgh bills which were enacted by a Republican assembly over Governor Donahue's veto. The state administration has endorsed the workmen's compensation amendment. On other amendments and the old age pension bill it remained silent. The Republican state organization as such has apparently manifested no interest in the outcome on any of the amendments or bills.

In other local contests, that in Massillon has created considerable interest, inasmuch as former Mayor H. H. Wadsworth is running against the incumbent, Mayor J. J. Wadsworth, is seeking re-election at the head of a full independent ticket.

The Klan issue was raised in the Portsmouth mayoralty election by the action of Mayor W. N. Gableman, ardent Klan member when they met at a meeting of voters and the fact that the opponent is Ralph Gableman, Republican. The Klan issue also has been raised in Newark, Steubenville, Marion and some other cities.

Practically every city also is to vote on bond and tax levies. In Cleveland, election of councilmen under a new plan of voting and the fact that the new councilman will choose a city manager is adding considerable interest there. In Columbus, where Mayor J. J. Thomas has two opponents, one, Randolph W. Walton, running as an independent, has publicly denounced the Ku Klux Klan.

Store Looting Continues In Berlin

Bandits Swoop Down On Indiana Town; Rob Two Banks

ST. LOUIS, November 6.—(By the Associated Press)—Four bandits today robbed the Park Savings Bank in the southwestern part of the city of $2,380 and escaped in an automobile.

SPENCER, IND., November 6.—(By the Associated Press)—A band of robbers, variously estimated in number from fourteen to twenty, robbed two banks here early today of approximately $15,000 and wounded two citizens. Traveling in four automobiles the robbers first isolated the town by cutting all telephone and telegraph wires, then posted guards to prevent interruption while they blew open the bank vaults.

The bandits remained in the town more than an hour and in gaining access to the bank vaults used several explosive charges, almost wrecking one of the buildings. The banks entered were the National Bank of Spencer, and the Exchange State Bank.

Before the bandits left the town, a citizen rang the town fire bell. Persons who left their homes in response to the alarm were driven back by a volley of shots fired by the robbers. J. A. Barge, a banker, and Frank Gray, a second hand dealer, were wounded slightly. In addition to cutting lines of communication the bandits severed electric light wires leaving the town in darkness.

A night watchman, said he was told by one of the captors that there were twenty men in the party. He was seized about three o'clock, he said, and the robbers remained in the town until after four a. m.

Spencer is the county seat of Owen county and has a population of 2,500.

Rabbit Marathon On High Street

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 6.—Traffic automobile, street car and pedestrian, was stopped for about thirty seconds at Columbus' busiest corner Broad and High streets, shortly before noon today to permit a wild rabbit to do a marathon down the center of High street.

The traffic cop on duty at the intersection of the city's two main thoroughfares, seeing bunny's speed and realizing that a traffic jam would result unless he had a clear trail, set the block against all Broad street traffic and himself stepped aside to let him pass.

Halfway down the next block, bunny changed his course and dove into a hedge around the state house grounds.

With a shrill blast of his whistle, the traffic cop changed his blocks and traffic again moved normally at the busy intersection.

Sunday Movies Issue In Bucyrus Election

BUCYRUS, O., November 6.—(By the Associated Press)—As far as public interest shows there seems to be but one issue in Bucyrus' municipal election today. That is "to have or not to have Sunday movies."

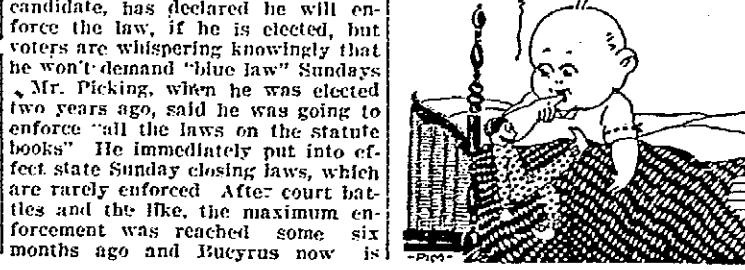

Bucyrus folks can not attend motion picture shows on Sunday now. Neither may they have a glass put on their shoes on a Sunday. If they desire the sureness from worry that nicotine is supposed to give, they must leave their home town to buy a cigar.

Such has been the state of affairs for the last six months under the regime of Mayor Charles P. Pickens, and it will continue if he is re-elected, according to those opposed to him.

Arthur F. Schuler, the Democratic candidate, has declared he will enforce the law, if he is elected, but voters are whispering knowingly that he won't demand "blue law" Sundays.

Mr. Pickens, when he was elected two years ago, said he was going to enforce "all the laws on the statute books." He immediately put into effect state Sunday closing laws, which are rarely enforced. After court battles and the like, the maximum enforcement was reached some six months ago and Bucyrus now is

Chillicothe Hardware Firm Robbed

The Chillicothe Gazette says: When officials of the Cameron-Kramer Hardware company opened up for business Monday they found that a burglar had effected entrance to their building over a rear roof, jimmed a window and a door open, and descending to the ground floor, ransacked the office and several show cases. As far as can be learned a rifle, case of knives and several keys were all that were secured. The burglar left a plain trail. He rolled under a door in a warehouse and tried two side doors. Unable to make his entrance there, he went to the Wisler place, climbed the pole, stepped off on a roof and, prying a door from a rear upstairs window, forced the window open and climbed in.

Ear Of Corn Has K. K. Cross On It

L. E. Baer, farmer of Allegheny Hill, brought to The Times office today an ear of corn containing what he termed a K. K. K. cross. It was an ear of yellow corn and on one side were a number of grains of red corn in the shape of a crude cross. Mr. Baer did not discover the ear of corn in shucking, but found it yesterday as he was preparing to feed his stock.

Chillicothe Scribe Pans Sideliners

The Chillicothe Gazette says: Had either the Chillicothe Independents or the Portsmouth Smoke House chosen, though, before the game at Meno Park, yesterday afternoon, to provide themselves with a sea-going rowboat, the tale told below might have been different, but as it was neither had on their sea boots, despite the fact that both threatened to score, neither was able to slide across the goal line. Running was well-nigh impossible, for the game was played in a field that before the final whistle blew, resembled a small lake surrounded by marsh. The crowd gave the biggest example of poor sportsmanship shown here in recent years when they crowded out on the field and despite efforts of officials would not keep back. It required old timers of nothing so much as the never-to-be-forgotten game at Circleville, four years ago.

River News

2,542 Income Tax Returns in Scioto County

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 6.—Portsmouth citizens made 2,542 returns of net income for 1921. It was revealed in the announcement of statistics of income for that year given out here today by the Bureau of Internal Revenue. Secrecy of returns made it impossible to secure the total net income reported from Portsmouth. Residents of Scioto county turned in 2,542 returns. Lawrence county was the only nearby county to yield a considerable amount of revenue, with 861 returns. Adams county had 89, Jackson county 401 and Pike county 74. The only nearby city to make a considerable number of federal tax returns was Canton, with 107. The total number of Ohio returns fell off sharply from the "prosperity peak" of the previous year, totalling 367,098 against 417,998 for 1920. The total net income reported showed a similar decline from $1,407,388,003 in 1920 to $1,060,027,020, a drop of $347,360,077. The average income on which Ohioans paid tax in 1921 was $2,558 as against $3,142 in 1920, while the average tax was $91, compared with $126 in 1920. If these average figures for the state hold good for Portsmouth, residents of that city in 1921 paid a federal income tax of approximately $217,035 on incomes aggregating $8,887,880.

Farm Bureau Drive Opens Nov. 20

Forward Farm Bureau. With this slogan in mind, John Willey, of Union Township, started Monday with the determination of the coming Farm Bureau membership campaign for Scioto county and to enlist an army of soldiers, local farmers if you please, to solicit and sign members to the Bureau for another three (3) year period.

Three years ago so little was generally known of the Farm Bureau in its larger aspects, that it was necessary to import solicitors from other counties for so slight was the interest in Scioto County that Mr. A. C. Coe of the Portsmouth Times Publishing Company, recalls with shuddering vividness the difficulty he had in securing drivers to convey the foreign solicitors in the cause for agricultural progress. But Mr. Coe, fresh from the man and who still wore the coat of tan acquired in the hay field of old Nile Township, battled through to a successful finish.

When the first farmers came to Ohio and the states to the west of us in the corn belt, they settled in the hills and along the streams. It was years after the first settlers had established himself before the farmers of that day pushed out into the prairies today to produce such a large portion of the world's food supply.

Farm organization history seems somewhat similar. Years of experimenting have brought forth and developed the local organizations for co-operative work in production and marketing. Some farmers have held back, no doubt, just as in that early day the movement to the more fertile fields was delayed.

Hundreds of Scioto County farmers recognize this and it is for this reason Mr. Willey anticipates no trouble in securing local farmers who will spend the necessary time talking with their neighbors concerning production and marketing problems, and how they can best be solved by banding together in groups through the community, county, state and national Farm Bureau movement, of which all progressive farmers want to support, once they fully understand the accomplishments of the past three years and the plans for future work. Mr. Willey says he will have everything in readiness for the opening of the campaign on November 20.

Jones has a welt six inches long over the left ear, his right eye bruised, and numerous marks about his head and arms, where the blows rained down upon him. Following the attack, the men jumped into their Ford coupe and headed for Mulberry street, where traffic intercepted Jones from following them. They disappeared into City Park.

ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR DR. OFFICER IS TABLED AT NEW BOSTON COUNCIL

An ordinance introduced at last night's meeting of New Boston council, providing for the appointment of a village prohibition officer, was quickly tabled and plans made for a special meeting of council Friday night, when the ordinance will be discussed. It provides for the hiring of a special officer who would be paid from a fund made up of fines and fees collected in the prosecution of liquor law cases. A contract for the repairing of Stanton avenue and New Center street was awarded to Kelley Bros., on their bid of $4,700. The only other bid was $5,440, submitted by S. Moore & Son Company. The two paving of both streets have been badly damaged by heavy trucks. The new paving will be put on a more solid base. A controversy of a year's standing came within one step of settlement when Council went through the formality of approving an ordinance ordered prepared at its meeting a month ago. It provided for the payment of personal and property damage to the amount of $350 to Ray Brown. The claim got out of an accident on or about November 10 of last year, when Brown's Ford machine was struck by the village fire truck. Over a year will have elapsed when the money is finally paid and the claim settled, as this must await the expiration of thirty days, when the ordinance becomes effective.

Ashland Store Is Robbed

ASHLAND, Ky., Nov. 6.—The Ashland police have information on the alleged robbery of Ben Johnson and Son's furnishing store that a negro with a large steamer trunk and several bags of money was taken to Huntington Sunday morning by a taxi cab from a residence in Ashland. Police have thrown a net around the residence from which the negro was taken by a taxi and in the opinion of the local authorities there is a possible clue which may involve some residents in Ashland with the robbery.

Thieves Visit Wheelersburg; Koch Hardware Store Robbed

Wheelersburg was visited by thieves Sunday night when three places, the George Koch hardware store, Frank Lallow garage and David Bussler's barn were burglarized. Stock valued at $75 formed the loot at the Koch store. Pocket knives, watches, a revolver and razors were taken. One half dozen high-priced pearl handled knives and about a dozen other knives were included in the loot. Three or four razors were taken. Entrance was gained by breaking a glass in a rear door. When it was found that stores were placed against the back door the thieves crawled in through the broken glass and left by unlocking the front door. The robbery was discovered Monday.

When a door in the Lallow garage was forced open a carabator was the only thing stolen. It was removed from Mr. Lallow's automobile. Tools formed the loot taken from the Bussler stable. Mr. Bussler is an N. and W. section foreman.

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health

Worcester, Mass. — "I had some trouble caused by a female weakness and got so run-down and weak from it that I could hardly stand or walk across the door. The doctor gave me all kinds of pills, but nothing helped me. I happened to meet a friend who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I thought I would try it. After taking it a week I began to improve, and now I feel fine and am doing all of my housework, including washing, sewing and house cleaning. I have recommended your medicine to my friends, and I am willing for you to use this letter as a testimonial, as I would like to help any one suffering the way I did from such a weakness." — Mrs. DELIA HICKEY, 4 S. Unmasked Men Hold Up West Side Man

County officers are searching for three bandits, who, entered the home of John Montgomery, Buena Vista pike farmer, shortly before nine o'clock last night, and at the point of a revolver forced Montgomery to hand over his valuables, including $10,000 which represented his entire savings.

Montgomery, who is employed by S. Monroe and Son company, local contractors, having two teams in service, lives alone in a cottage near the Albert Turner home on the Buena Vista pike nine miles west of the city.

He told the officers that after the evening meal he laid down on a couch to take a short nap when he was awakened by the sharp command of one of three men who had entered the room to "put 'em up", at the same time demanding his money. Montgomery started that he had been disarmed the night before and he was unable to furnish the officers with but a meager description of the robbers, who, he said, were unmasked and quickly left after obtaining his valuables, climbed into a waiting automobile and sped away towards Portsmouth.

Montgomery went to the home of a neighbor and notified Sheriff Dunham by telephone of the robbery and the sheriff and his deputies patrolled West Side roads for several hours in a vain effort to apprehend the bandits. They are still working on the case and are bending every effort to run down the robbers. The officers are working on the theory that the bandits are the same gang who recently visited the Al. Turner place and other West Side garages and made a successful getaway with automobile tires and other property.

Election

(Continued From Page One) today, with voters stirred by the bitter fight over the Klan issue. W. J. Williams, and his opponent, J. J. Moore, were the only candidates declared by a citizens' committee, declared in his last campaign speech last night that Thomas Muldoon and James Watkins had agreed to withdraw but that Watkins refused at the last minute on the advice of E. H. Moore, former Democratic National Committeeman, who has been advising Watkins.

New Style of Voting
CLEVELAND, O., November 6.—(By the Associated Press)—Chief interest in the election here today centered in the voting for the first time under the new city manager charter. Using proportional representation, the voters were choosing twenty-five councilmen, who will take office January 1 for two year terms, at which time they will select a city manager.

Only the results of the first choice will be available tonight. With the closing of the polls at 6:30 p. m., a preliminary count will be made of the first choice votes, after which the votes for nine municipal judges and three school board members and the important state and county issues will be counted. With the exception of the councilmen, the other issues will be decided by old style balloting.

The councilmen will be chosen from a list of 118 non-partisan candidates. The voters will be asked to vote for their ballots will not begin until Thursday morning. The registration for today's balloting was less than 132,000, about 4,500 under the number which voted on the city manager amendment two years ago and only a light vote was predicted.

Much Interest In Cincinnati
CINCINNATI, O., November 6.—(By the Associated Press)—In addition to the election of city auditor, three municipal judges, three members of the board of Education and twenty-six ward assessors, Cincinnati voters today were called upon to settle a number of the most important controversies ever submitted to the city's electorate. The polls were open from 5:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m.

Of prime interest among the issues at hand were the extra municipal levy of three mills, the schedule levy of one-half mill, and the referendum on the Taft act.

The registration books showed that the approximate number of persons in the city entitled to vote was 133,000 of which 41,000 were women.

Each side predicted victory for its candidates. Democrats were confident the municipal tax levy and the Taft law would be defeated, while Republicans declared these measures were certain of approval.

Not Much Bearing On Presidential Race

NEW YORK, November 6.—(By the Associated Press)—With few issues having a bearing on the next presidential campaign involved in today's off year elections, there will be little in the results to indicate which way the national political wind is blowing.

Only one new member of the United States senate is to be elected. He will come from Vermont to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late Senator Dillingham, whose term would have expired in 1927. Porter H. Dale, Republican, and Park E. Polard, Democratic, are candidates for the place. The prohibition issue is involved, Dale favoring enforcement. Pollard advocating modification of the Volstead act. Vermont normally is Republican and political wisecracks say there are no signs of an upheaval.

Seven new representatives will be elected to congress, four in New York, and one each in Illinois, Vermont and North Carolina.

In Illinois and North Carolina, the Democratic candidates will have no major party opposition. Three states—Maryland, Mississippi and Kentucky, will elect governors. Philadelphia will hold a municipal election.

Elections In Other States

Bitter Fight In New York
NEW YORK—As voters throughout the state started to the polls this morning, leaders of both major parties were confident of victory.

Most interest at both headquarters was in the balloting for the assembly, now controlled by the Republicans. Three congressional vacancies were to be filled.

The campaign in New York was enlivened with references to William Randolph Hearst by Governor Alfred E. Smith, who closed the race last night with an address in Harlem when he urged negroes to forego their traditional adherence to the Republican party and vote on the issues. A bitter battle was waged between Tammany and the Republican Hearst forces over the ten judicial vacancies in the supreme court.

Full State Ticket In Kentucky
LOUISVILLE—With fair weather promised, Kentucky voters went to the polls today to elect a full state ticket, a full membership for the lower house of the general assembly and half of the state senate.

Apathy In Cook County
CHICAGO—Voters of Cook county today are balloting for 23 superior and circuit judges, a congressman and on a number of civic questions. Apparent apathy of voters has led observers to predict the outcome will show in the assembly the faction exercising most pressure to get out its votes.

Voting On Important Offices
SAN FRANCISCO—San Francisco voters are voting today to fill a number of important offices, including that of mayor, district attorney, two police judges and nine city and county supervisors.

To Elect Senator
MONTPELIER, VT.—A United States senator to succeed the late William P. Dillingham, Republican, will be elected today.

Judge of the Superior Court
PHILADELPHIA—The only contest of statewide interest in today's election in Pennsylvania was for judge of the superior court. Four

Oppose Church Candidates
SALT LAKE CITY—A spirited three months campaign of American party candidates against "church candidates" for city offices in which the American party slogan has been "Separation of Church and State" ends with the election day. Chief interest centers in the mayor's election, which C. Clarence Nestin, a Mormon bishop, is standing for re-election. Joseph Gallagher, the American party's candidate for mayor, is a business man.

Famous Gangster, Hero In War, Given Honors By Veterans

NEW YORK, November 6.—Bill Lovett, notorious gangster, protagonist of many bitter feuds of the underworld of New York, met his death at the hand of some slum enemy in a dingy room not far from Brooklyn's waterfront Wednesday.

William A. Lovett, machine gunner in the A. E. F., possessor of the distinguished service cross and of scars left by German bullets on the battlefield of the Argonne, was buried with full military honors in the Cypress Hills Military Cemetery today.

From the cottage in Ridgewood Park, N. Y., where Lovett and his bride of a few months lived, the body of First Class Private Lovett was taken from a dark, damp, flower-filled room to its final resting place in Brooklyn by the local unit of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Gangster Bill was forgotten as private Bill was interred beside comrades with whom he had fought and bled in France.

France

THIRD: The total debt of Germany may have to be reduced but it will not be agreed to without corresponding concessions. There is no intention on the part of France to reduce the amount of the so-called "A" and "B" bonds the French share of which totals approximately $3,500,000,000. As for the so-called "C" bonds, the French share of which would amount to $11,000,000,000 the French would be willing to accept a reduction provided the French debt to Great Britain which amounts to $4,000,000,000 and the French debt to the United States which amounts to $3,500,000,000 were cut down too.

The French Premier is really making these statements now in order that he may legally protect himself in case a proposal should be made by the expert commission to cut the German debt. He wants to be able to say that he notified all concerned in advance the exact conditions under which he would permit a reduction of the German debt.

As for the limitation on the present capacity to pay, Mr. Hughes has an answer that in all probability will satisfy Mr. Poincare. It is that the inquiry shall not be political in nature at all, that all the powers shall retain their treaty privileges and their privileges of accepting or rejecting the findings of the commission but that the experts shall conduct an economic inquiry into the productive capacity of Germany.

Mr. Poincare for instance, is anxious that new methods of payment be devised for Germany but he knows that an international loan will not be forthcoming unless something is known of Germany's future earning power as well. The French premier is more than anxious that the truth be ascertained as to the productive capacity of the German people rather than the German government which is admittedly bankrupt. He wants to know what the revenues from taxation might be and what the business interests and industrial magnates can be expected to do to help pay their share of the debt. Having made clear what it is the French government wishes to avoid—which is really any commitment in advance that would require a reduction of the debt—the French Premier is ready to proceed.

An air of distinct hopefulness prevailed at the French Embassy today after reading the communication from Premier Poincare and Mr. Jusserand promptly arranged for a conference later in the day with Secretary Hughes. The latter incidentally seemed in better spirits than he has been for several days and this was attributed to the fact that the British charge d'affaires brought him the welcome news that Belgium and Italy had decided to stand with Great Britain and the United States. The significance of that bit of news can hardly be exaggerated for the Belgians have been at the side of France from the very beginning and Italy has also shown a disposition to side with the French rather than the British on reparation questions. France cannot lose anything by agreeing to an inquiry which is merely to discover economic facts. The news that Premier Poincare will not permit the negotiations to come to naught is, of course, the most hopeful thing about the latest developments. It means that a compromise in phraseology is sight.

Have You Seen the Famous Florence Hot Blast Heater?

Are you going to trust the uncertainty of gas for heat—or will you assure yourself of a comfortably heated house this winter? The FLORENCE Hot Blast is the most talked of wonder stove of the age—it burns slack, saw dust, soft coal, wood or hard coal.

What It Will Do

The No. 151 or No. 73 will heat 3 or 4 ordinary rooms all winter on 3 tons of slack or lump coal.

The No. 153 or No. 75 will heat 5 or 6 rooms all winter on 4 tons of slack or lump coal.

Remember, the Florence heats the floor and a penetrating heat is felt 5 or 6 feet in all directions from the stove on the floor.

Remember

The Florence will burn all the smoke and gases and you eliminate all the offensive parts of the fuel.

Be Sure You See It

The Florence holds fire for 48 hours and, a steady even temperature is maintained, not red hot one minute and cold the next, an even flow night or day, no rolling out of bed into a cold room with a FLORENCE in your home.

No Dirt Inside Or Outside The House

The Florence distributes heat like a furnace, and located as it is in your living room it eliminates traveling up and down stairs and operates on 1-3 the fuel.

No Smoke, No Soot, No Dirt, Everything Consumed

Let us show you this wonderful heating device, burning the cheapest slack with as nice results as if you were burning natural or artificial gas.

It will enable you to realize that you can burn any kind of fuel without any soot accumulating in the pipe or flue, it is the only absolute smoke consuming stove that has ever been invented.

OUR GUARANTEE: If by operating the stove according to our directions you find at the end of the season any soot in the pipe or flue we will make you a present of the stove and refund the money you paid for it. No other dealer would dare to make such an offer.

If the fire pot cracks or burns out in 5 years we will replace it with a new one free of charge. The reason is the Florence burns out the fuel while in other stoves the fuel burns out the stove. It is the only jointless ash pit base with full radiation on the market. It is the only one that has ever been made. The result is that as a fire keeper it is in a class by itself, and will be a perfect fire keeper for 25 years.

"Laboratoire Biologique du Radium." Similar centers for study have been inaugurated in other countries, notably one in London in 1900. The diseases to which the application has been hitherto confined are papilloma, lupus, vulgaris, epithelial tumors, syphilis, ulcers, pigmentary naevi, angiodermatitis and chronic itching of the skin, but the use of radium in therapeutics is still experimental. The different varieties of rays used are controlled by the intervention of screens or filtering substances such as silver, lead and aluminum. Radium is analgesic and bactericidal in its action. The use of radium in certain types of advanced inoperable cancer gives palliation by relief of pain and freeing from foul-smelling discharges. This degree of palliation can be obtained by no other treatment and if used for this purpose alone radium would be invaluable. In other types of cancerous growths radium has produced cures and cures throughout the world are gradually admitting that radium is a necessary adjunct in the treatment of cancer and in some cases giving more satisfactory results than any other treatment. many grams did you say you wanted to buy?

Dear Dolly—If a grass widow would marry a grass widow what would their children be?

WANT-TO-KNOW. I suppose you want me to complete the joke by saying they would be grass-hoppers.

Dear Dolly—Will you please tell me who wrote the "Old Oaken Bucket?"

SAMUEL WOODWORTH wrote the "Old Oaken Bucket." This famous old ballad was written in the summer of 1817. Mr. Woodworth at the time was with his family in New York City. One hot day he came into the house and, pouring out a glass of water, he exclaimed, "That is very refreshing, but how much better it would be to take a good, long draught from the old oaken bucket at home!" His wife exclaimed, "Wouldn't that be a fine subject for a poem?" Thereupon Woodworth seized his pen, and, musing on the home of his childhood days, wrote these now familiar stanzas. I misplaced your letter and have forgotten the other question you asked.

Dear Miss Dolly—Do you know of anything that will remove tar from the hands?

MRS. Z. X. Z. Try rubbing the hands with the outside of fresh orange or lemon peel and wiping dry immediately. It is astonishing what a small piece will clean. The volatile oil in the skins dissolves the tar, so that it can be wiped off.

A wedding marked by simple elegance occurred in Italy Redemer church this morning when Miss Mary A. Pirrung, one of the lovely daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Pirrung, of 1550 Fifth street, became the bride of Mr. Michael J. McClory, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McClory, of Columbus, Ohio.

The ceremony was performed at seven o'clock by Reverend J. E. McQuirk in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the principals. In preparation for the happy event the church was attractively decorated with fall flowers, gorgeous chrysanthemums and dahlias being used on the altars, while palms and ferns were gracefully arranged in the sanctuary.

The attendants were Miss Gertrude McFadden, a special friend of the bride, and Mr. Edward McClory, a brother of the groom, of Columbus.

While the guests were assembling Mr. C. E. Keen, the organist of the church, played a program of wedding music on the beautiful church organ, and as the bride party entered the way up the main aisle the organ pealed forth Lohengrin's Wedding March. Mr. Keen also played a program of appropriate airs during the nuptial mass which followed the marriage service.

The bride, who is a striking blonde, was attired in a handsome afternoon gown of dark blue and white crepe attractively decorated with steel beads and wore a becoming black hat trimmed in silver braid and burnt quills. An arm bouquet of gorgeous white poinsettia chrysanthemums completed her charming costume.

Miss Montavon wore an attractive afternoon gown of blue and gray Molly-O crepe, a becoming gray hat, trimmed with a jaunty gray plume, gray gloves and hose and black satin pumps. An arm bouquet of large yellow chrysanthemums completed her smart attire.

Immediately after the ceremony, a wedding breakfast of exquisite appointments was served at the Mary Louise to the members of the bridal party and immediate families.

Mr. and Mrs. McClory departed later in the day on a wedding trip through the northern part of the state and will later return to Columbus to make up their residence in their new home, 1405 Myrtle Avenue, which the groom recently purchased and furnished for his bride.

Mrs. McClory has been employed as bookkeeper with the Charles D. Seidler Insurance Office in the First National Bank Building for the past few years and is very popular with a wide circle of friends.

Mr. McClory is connected with Pennsylvania Railroad Company in Columbus and is a splendid young man.

Among the out of town relatives here for the wedding are Mrs. J. Edward Pirrung, and Clarence Pirrung, of Cincinnati, brothers of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. William H. Pirrung and children, Billie and Glenet, brother and sister in law and nephews of the bride, from Huntington, W. Va., and Miss Dolly Wise, of Ironton, and Mr. Edward McClory, brother of the groom, of Columbus, and Mrs. A. J. Pirrung of Cincinnati.

The home of Mrs. H. M. DeAtley of Columbus was the scene of a happy reunion Sunday when relatives of Mrs. DeAtley assembled there from various parts of the state to help celebrate her eightieth birthday anniversary. The day was a very pleasant one for the honor guest, who is enjoying the best of health for one of her years, and the presence of her children and grandchildren was a source of much pleasure to her. She has eight living children, thirty-two grand children and twenty-two great grandchildren, the majority of whom were present at the celebration. Those from this city included Mr. and Mrs. M. L. DeAtley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeAtley and children, Ralph and Carlina, Mrs. C. V. Kessler and daughter Jessie and Mr. Earl Mitchell, Jr. and Mrs. John Ritchie and daughter Helen.

Mrs. Elizabeth Carr, Mr. and Mrs. George DeAtley, Mrs. A. Spindler and Miss Cora DeAtley were present from Columbus, Mrs. Dora Matthews and son Wilford of Enoch, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Sims S. DeAtley of Detroit, Mich.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Turner of near Minford was the scene of a delightful surprise party recently, the occasion being the ninth birthday anniversary of their son Lawrence.

The rooms were attractively decorated for the occasion with a profusion of fall flowers and house plants. At the close of a very delightful afternoon a delectable two course lunch was served to the following guests:

Martha White, Clara Belle Kinkadee, Adeline Erwin, Gladys Conker, Nellie Monney, Clarence Monney, Herbert Dabney, Dudley White, Clarence Kinkadee and guest of honor, Lawrence Turner.

Miss Milla W. Ford had as her guest over Sunday her brother, T. G. Ford, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Rice of Catlettsburg, Ky.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS
by Olive Roberts Barton

POUCHER PELICAN'S LESSON

The next minute the Twins saw Poucher swimming toward shore.

MISSEZ PELICAN was a queer bird. She was queer as to looks and queer as to appetite and queer as to habits—so being queer in three things, you might say she was queer all over.

She wasn't a bit handsome. She had a beak long enough for three birds, and she carried her market basket on her chin.

She lived on the edge of the ocean in Dixie Land with six of her children and had a pretty good time fishing and feeding her young and seeing that they all grew up into good, smart little pelicans.

So now you know all about her. Nancy and Nick happened along when she was giving her son, Poucher Pelican, a lesson in fishing, so they sat down on a rock to watch and listen.

"Do it this way, Poucher," said Misses Pelican. "You paddle out on the water a little way and then stop stony still. Keep as quiet as you know how and when a fish comes away in your skin. When you get two or three fish you can swim to shore and take your time while you dine. You are not so likely to get indigestion as you would if you bolted your food."

"All right, Mammy," said Poucher, paddling off to the edge of the water and floating away as lightly as a cork. With a few strokes of his

Mrs. M. H. Journey of Wheelersburg entertained the Monday Evening Kensington Club last night at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. J. Cottle, 1102 Fourth street. The club was spent in merrymaking, followed by a social hour, during which refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Robert Halshy of Park Avenue.

Tomorrow evening from five until seven o'clock the women of All Saints' church will serve a chicken pie supper to which the general public is cordially invited to attend. A large bazaar will be held in connection with the supper and will continue over Thursday afternoon and evening.

The menu will consist of chicken pie, mashed potatoes and gravy, cold slaw and cranberries, home made white bread and brown bread, ice cream, cake and coffee. The price will be sixty cents per plate and the general public is invited to attend. The various guilds of the church will have booths of fancy articles and good things to eat, including home-made candy on sale at the bazaar.

The following handsomely engraved invitations were issued Monday:

Mr. Alfred George Deering on Wednesday the twenty-first of November

at high noon

Second Presbyterian Church Portsmouth, Ohio.

Joseph Spencer Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution will meet Monday evening, Nov. 12, at the home of Mrs. C. W. Wendelken, corner of Highland and Hitchens streets. The assistant hostesses are Mesdames J. A. Booker, Cornelia Treatman and Nannie Shaw.

In addition to the regular business session a delightful program of music and readings has been arranged for this meeting. The members will bring to this meeting articles for sewing and fancy work, which will be packed and sent to Ellis Island by the chapter. These articles will be used as busy work for the handicapped women detained at the Island awaiting entrance into the United States.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of Franklin Avenue M. E. Church, will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ralph Mattingly, 1235 Franklin Avenue. Mr. William Marsh of Detroit, Mich., motored here Monday to visit his mother, Mrs. Mary Marsh, of 1727 Offshore Street, and other relatives and friends in the city.

The Joys Of whiter, cleaner teeth

Let this test reveal them

Here is a way which has brought to millions prettier teeth and safer. You will never go without its benefits when once you find them out. Accept the test we offer. Watch the results for a few days. They will be a revelation.

By fighting film

The results come by fighting film on teeth—that vicious film you feel under old methods, much of that film resists the tooth brush, clings and stays.

Soon the film discolours, then forms dingy coats, so white teeth lose their beauty.

Most tooth troubles are also due to film. It holds foul substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. And they, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Few people, in old-way brushing, escape the film-caused troubles.

Ways of escape
Dental science has now found two effective film combatants. One acts to disintegrate the film, one to remove it without harmful scouring. Able authorities proved these methods by many careful tests. Then a new-type tooth paste was created to apply them daily. The name is Pepsodent.

Careful people of some 50 nations have adopted this tooth paste, largely by dental advice.

Pepsodent meets the new-day requirements, based on modern research. It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva, also its starch digestant.

Those are Nature's agents for neutralizing acids and digesting starch deposits. Pepsodent gives them manifold effect, while old ways reduced their power. Thus it brings new cleanliness, new protection, without using harmful grit.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth become whiter as the film-coats disappear.

You will be surprised and delighted. Cut out coupon now.

Sallie Ann SAYS

A large assortment of new coats both in dress and sport models arrived at The Fashion this morning. I must tell you about a few of them.

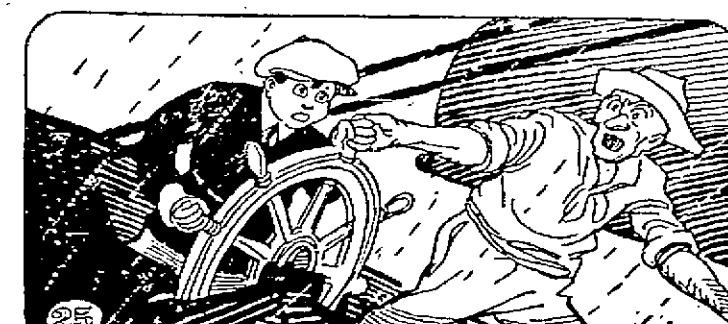

The sport coats are in swaggar stripes and plaids in tans and greys. Some have fur collars and some are self trimmed. One mannish swaggar little coat is in a new grey striped English coating. It has a cleverly tucked round collar edged with a plain strip of the cloth. It fastens at the side with a large button and tab. Another, to which much style is added by a wide collar of fitch opossum which doubles and forms a choker collar when buttoned high. It is of tan plaid and also fastens at the hip. The sleeves are drawn close near the cuff by a tailored band.

Among the new dress coats is a gorgeous black coat in a new glossy lustrous material called Oriona. It has a large collar and handsome cuffs of finest black lynx. Some larger woman is going to be made happy by this coat as it is a size 42. Another coat in the same size is of black Truevella, a lustrous product of America's finest woolen mill, with a full soft collar of platinum wolf. Another in the same size is of lustrous gerona, the "queen of the fabrics" with a rich collar of beautiful beaver.

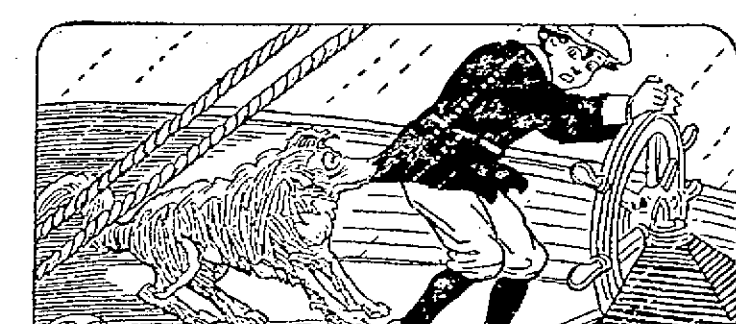

More Wednesday.

JACK DAW'S ADVENTURES ON GOLD ISLAND

Jack whirled the wheel enough so that the Betsy Chair was gliding directly toward the nearest point of the island. Then, suddenly, the bow of the boat started sinking. "Don't leave the wheel until the boat goes under," ordered Jinks. So Jack stuck to his place.

Down, down, down went the Betsy Chair. Flip, in the meantime, ran up to his master and pulled at his coat. The dog knew his master was in danger and wanted him to leave the wheel. "Well be all right," said Jack, as he tried to push his pet dog away. But Flip clung on.

Then a queer thing happened. There was a dull thud and a severe jolt, and the ship stopped sinking. "We're on bottom," shouted Jinks. And sure enough, when Nick and Bibbs let an anchor slide over the side, it only went down into the water a few feet. (Continued.)

Clare Jewett, in love with the Reverend Daniel Gilchrist, marries Jerry Goodkind for his money. Daniel is dismissed from the fashionable Church of the Nativity in New York because of his radical sermon. Gilchrist is sent to the coal mines by Goodkind senior and vices that a big strike is settled. A delegation of strikers comes north to interview the president and direct.

They are received in Jerry's home first. Stedman, then Hennig, and Unamki. They do not meet with success. Daniel calls at Jerry's home to see Jerry's father. Jerry meets Daniel and forbids him to speak to Clare.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
Suddenly Jerry lifted a hand that trembled with anger. With a swift motion he brought it up and with its back slashed Gilchrist across the mouth, a stinging blow.

Gilchrist's hands clinched tightly, his face colored so that the red mark of the blow was lost, he drew himself up as if to launch his whole force at this snarling thing before him.

Then, as suddenly as his muscular frame had stiffened, it relaxed. He bowed his head, as one humbled. In his mind he had seen a figure and heard a voice.

Clare started with the blow but caught herself up quickly when she saw Gilchrist open his clenched hands and lower his head.

"Dan!" she said in amazement, "You're going to take that?"

Gilchrist looked up unshaken. "I have nothing to say," he answered simply, calmly.

It was Clare who turned to scorn now.

"I didn't think you were a coward," she mocked. Then helplessly and patently: "You see—I was wrong about everything."

And she was gone.

CHAPTER XIII
Jerry's Ultimatum

GILCHRIST stood there helpless, but with his head still high and his eyes clear. Clare's reputation had left him mute and he seemed like a lifeless and hollow thing. Its effect on Hennig, however, had been the opposite. Fired by the brazenness of others, he, too, doubted his fists, and advanced upon this man he believed to be immobile with cowardice.

"You'll play around with my wife, will you?" he blustered. His fist shot out.

Daniel had wheeled suddenly with the alertness of a cunning animal. With a swift move, he caught Hennig's wrist with both hands. A quick twist, and Joe sprawled on the floor. Daniel looked at his cowed adversary solicitously.

"I hope I didn't hurt you, Joe," he said.

"My God!" It was Stedman's expression of amazement as he looked from Gilchrist to Jerry, bewildered.

Hennig had scrambled to his feet but not eager for another encounter. He made for the door.

"Don't worry," he muttered. "I'll get you. It may be a long time but I'll get you." And he hurried out.

"Take him home, Stedman," said Gilchrist with a trace of tender solicitude.

"Tell your father we'll be around in the morning, Mr. Jerry," said Stedman as he left.

Gilchrist and Jerry eyed each other for a moment. Then Jerry snatched to the table, poured himself out a drink and downed it with a grimace.

"Well," he said at last, "you've made a nice mess of it. Why can't you keep your nose out of other people's business? Why did you have to date my leaving Black River?"

Gilchrist could talk freely now, Clare was gone.

"Why in the name of heaven did you have to get mixed up with Pearl Hennig?" he queried earnestly.

"I can take what I want out of life," Jerry answered earnestly.

Gilchrist nodded.

"God says, 'There is the world. Take what you want,'" he said, and then with emphasis, "and pay for it."

"Rubbish!" mocked Jerry. "Save your preaching for those who like it. And keep away from my wife."

"Why?"

"Because you're in love with her. Aren't you?"

"Yes." The answer was bland.

"Well, you've a hell of a nerve to preach to me about Hennig's wife while you're making a play for mine."

"I'm not making a play for yours."

"No?" Jerry's tone was sarcastic.

Rheumatic Agony

NOW EASILY ENDED

It does not matter to me whether you are disabled with cursed rheumatism or have only occasional twinges, I know that Allenhu, my own discovery, will stop the agony, do away with the gnawing pains and reduce the swollen joints.

I know it will dissolve the uric acid deposits that have become deeply imbedded in joints and muscles and quickly drive every trace of rheumatism from your body. I know this because I was crippled for years and many times was unable to work, and Allenhu made a well, robust, healthy man of me.

I know because since I cured myself hundreds have taken Allenhu and speedily rid themselves of this agonizing disease.

No matter how severe your case, I urge you to put your faith in the prescription that it took me years to perfect—a prescription that made a new man of me after doctors tried and failed.

Allenhu is no legend; it starts right in at once; it gets into the blood, searches out the poisonous uric acid deposits and in two days starts to drive the concentrated impurities that cause rheumatism, out of the blood through the natural channels.

"You expect me to believe that when you admit—Why did you pull that horn stuff? Why did you keep your mouth shut when I lost my temper? Why did you turn the other cheek?"

"You wouldn't understand, Jerry," Gilchrist was looking off in the distance.

"Wouldn't I? Well, you understand that I've forbidden you to speak to her and that goes. If you come here again I'll have the servants throw you out, and I'll tell my father why."

The senior Goodkind came from the music room as though summoned by mention of his name.

"Here's your father now," dared Gilchrist.

Jerry drew nearer and lowered his voice.

"And that's not all I'll do. Not by a damned sight," he muttered, and he brushed past his father as he stalked out.

Goodkind looked after him quizzically.

"Jerry doesn't like you much, does he?" he declared, as he reached for the humidor and passed the cigars to Gilchrist.

"Not much," smiled Gilchrist. The two men shared a match and puffed vigorously.

"Well," said Goodkind, when the smoke began to come generously, "how are things in Black River?"

"I think we've got everything settled," said Daniel.

"Fine. Benfield'll be up in a minute and we'll hear the conditions." "Somehow, I knew you'd do it. Jerry says you're a philanthropist, but I knew he was wrong."

"Thanks—again."

"I'm dog-tired of rowing with labor. It's such utter damned waste. Excuse me."

"Stay long in had company. To hear those fellows you'd think there wasn't any work except what's done with a pick. The man who really produces is the man with the idea."

"The man who produces most," corrected Daniel.

"Yes, and he ought to get most," said Goodkind firmly.

GILCHRIST'S HANDS CLINCHED TIGHTLY.

"He does," came back Gilchrist. "He always will," asserted Goodkind. Show me a big man and I'll show you somebody who's done a big job. It's the little man with no capacity and no chin who cries about a conspiracy to keep him from being president."

"They've got to be little men, too, Mr. Goodkind."

"And they've got to be satisfied with little rewards. We can't all have the same bank roll any more than we can all have the same health. That's where unions go wrong. When you tell a man he's going to have the same reward whatever he does—not because he's got ability, but because he's got a union card—down goes the standard, out goes incentive, and to hell goes the whole social structure."

"Right!" said Gilchrist, approvingly. "That's why I'm fighting the unions," continued Goodkind, well warmed to his subject. "Not because I want to starve the man who works, but because I want to free the man who doesn't—and reward the man who does. I want to give every man a good reason for doing his best. You can talk equality and democracy all you like, Dan, but the minute the average man isn't afraid of being fired he isn't afraid of being worthless. The minute you take away the incentive—the chance to get this"—and he waved a hand at the signs of wealth that surrounded him—"that minute you reduce the world to a common level of common indifference and common futility."

"Right!" agreed Daniel again.

"Have another cigar!" chorled

"The Best Cough Syrup is Home-made."

Here's an easy way to save $2. and yet have the best cough remedy you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? Then try this plan. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never sores, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse, tickling cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Goodkind, well pleased, Gilchrist waved the one he was smoking jet as Benfield appeared at the door.

"Come in, Charlie," said Goodkind. "Gilchrist's settled the strike."

"Good," said Benfield but with a skeptical reserve.

Daniel drew a folded paper from his pocket and handed it to Goodkind. "They may seem a little radical," he said, "but I think I can show you they'll save money in the end."

"That's the idea," beamed Goodkind as he picked up the sheets. He flung a cocky look at Benfield. "I told you I knew my man. The Lord knows he's full of theories but sometimes they—"

His eyes fell upon the typewritten sheet before him and he stopped short. "Wait a minute! What's this?"

Goodkind jumped to his feet and slowly rose appeared on a face that had radiated confidence a moment before.

At the evening service the pastor will begin a series of two Sunday evening discussions on the "Church and Labor."

Next Sunday night he will discuss the "Attitude of Labor Toward the Church," and on the following Sunday night "The Attitude of the Church Toward Labor." While much of the general information included in these discussions has been gleaned from magazine articles, local color and interest have been added by conferences with local labor leaders and the workingmen themselves.

Scioto County prize chickens kept by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lang, of this county along with County Farm Agent Gahn were given a special mention in the leading article in the last issue of The Country Gentleman. The story was "The Barnyard Revolution" by Harry H. O'Brien. In his story the writer said: "Or take the case of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lang, of Scioto County, Ohio, whose flock of about 100 Rhode Island Red hens in 1921 laid an average of ninety-nine eggs and brought in total receipts of $354.82. "But in 1922, after Walter F. Gahn, our county agent, showed us how to feed a laying mash, the same number of hens averaged 134 eggs and brought us in receipts of $516.10."

Mr. Gahn told me that this flock made the highest record of any in the farm-account ring in the county, where the average farm hen produced 73 eggs and receipts of $2.07.

Huntington Claiming Championship
Relative to Huntington High's gridiron victory over Parkersburg Saturday, the Ashland Independent said:

"Seventy-five hundred raving, near maniacal football fans saw Huntington win over Parkersburg Saturday 27 to 7, and in all probability decide the state championship."

Parkersburg, fifteen hundred strong, came to Huntington in two special trains and with two bands. Huntington Elks, business men, delegates from Marshall College and

Mr. Gahn told me that this flock made the highest record of any in the farm-account ring in the county, where the average farm hen produced 73 eggs and receipts of $2.07.

The game in all probability settled the state championship. Parkersburg has defeated Charleston, the other most likely candidate for championship honors, 7 to 0.

just plain dried-in the wool football fans met the specialists. The result was a parade two miles long.

Huntington came out on the sunny side of a 27 to 7 score. "Turrible Tag" Haeberlin, fullback de luxe, carried the swine skin over the line four times. Ellison made Parkersburg's only touch-down.

Mr. Gahn told me that this flock made the highest record of any in the farm-account ring in the county, where the average farm hen produced 73 eggs and receipts of $2.07.

Lancaster Anxious To Come Back

A letter was received here recently from the manager of the Lancaster football team in which he stated that every player on the Lancaster squad voiced the opinion after the game with the P. H. S. squad a week ago Saturday, that the Portsmouth players were the most sportsman-like they have met so far this season and they want a game again next year whether they get beat or not.

After the game with Lancaster the Varsity P Association gave a dance in the III school gym in honor of the Lancaster players.

Hornsby May Go On Trading Block

ST. LOUIS, MO., Nov. 6.—Branch Rickey, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, departed for the East today and shortly afterwards Sam Breadon, President of the club, boarded an eastbound train.

It is known Rickey will visit Boston and New York. Rickey would not discuss the nature of his mission, other than to say "he would not be surprised if I returned to St.

Louis without even discussing a transfer of players."

The report that Rogers Hornsby will be traded persists, however, and Hornsby has stated he believed he would be put on the trading block as a result of his affair with Rickey in New York just before the season closed.

Is Every Day a

Backache Day?

Lame and aching in the morning? Tortured with backache all day long? No wonder you feel worn out and discouraged. But have you given any thought to your kidneys? Weak kidneys cause just such troubles, and you are likely to have headaches, too, with dizziness, stinging pains, and bladder irregularities. Don't neglect! Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's have helped thousands. They should help you. Ask your neighbor.

Here's a Portsmouth Case:

Mrs. Charles Hester, 23 Jefferson St., says: "A cold and my kidneys to become irregular. I had a heavy pain across my back and if I stood long, sharp pains would frequently come. Doan's Kidney Pills brought at Brandt's Drug Store entirely cured me. I have had no return of the trouble."

WELL, WHO CARES?

LONDON, November 6.—Guessing the identity of the new owner of Papyrus and the sum paid for the famous colt is the latest diversion of followers of horse racing in England. Latest reports are that the buyer of the Derby winner is either Rusti Jarvis, his trainer, or somebody who has long been associated with Jarvis' stables.

The Daily Telegraph says the price exceeded the 31,500 pounds paid for Diamond Jubilee, which won the Derby in 1900.

Mother And Two Of Her Children Die As Home Is Burned

MOUNT VERNON, OHIO, Nov. 6.—From the Hills of Brandenburg, a small village in the southeastern part of Knox county, late today came a message telling of the death of a mother and her two children in a fire which destroyed their home. The dead are: Mrs. Edward Showman, 35; Pearl, 9; Edwin, 4.

The destruction of the home started at 5 o'clock Saturday evening when Mrs. Showman attempted to build a fire in a cook stove with gasoline. A terrible explosion occurred. In an instant the house was a mass of flames.
One daughter, Stella, 7, managed to escape from the burning building. She gave the alarm but by the time neighbors reached the scene, only a pile of ashes remained.
A search revealed the bones of the mother and her two children. The ashes of the three victims were placed in one casket and buried this afternoon.

British Boat Is Captured, Prize Liquor Stock Held

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 6.—(By the A. P.)—The British Auxiliary schooner Louise F was captured after a three hour chase at noon today by Federal authorities and 3,000 cases of liquor, valued at $375,000 were seized, the officers reported on their return here tonight.

The capture was effected within the 12-mile limit off South Pablo Beach and the captain, H. A. Johnson at Harbour Island, British West Indies, and six members of the crew were arrested. They are being brought to Jacksonville, where they will be charged with violating the custom laws and the national prohibition law, officers said.

The crew said they were attacked about 1 o'clock last Tuesday morning by the second assistant engineer and two stewards, one of whom was formerly the chief engineer, forced into the forecabin and kept there under guard until today. Their alleged captors, they said, went ashore today in dories when the government pursuers were sighted. Members of the crew, officers said, declared they put to sea under duress but the pursuers were liquor pirates.

Coal Prices Are Cut, Due To Mild Weather;

Many Miners Are Idle

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 6.—A reduction of 25 to 50 cents a ton in the price of West Virginia and Kentucky split and block coals was announced by two local dealers today. Continuing warm fall weather has caused a weakness in the market which dealers say promises to last as long as people can burn gas.
Out of 35 mines in the northern and central fields of Ohio, only eight are reported working, and they only one-fourth of the time. Half the mines in the Kanawha district also are idle.
Mine run coal from the eastern Ohio field is selling in the Cleveland market for $1.80 to $1.90 at this time. This, operators declare, is below the cost of production.

A neglected cough—The beginning of many a dangerous disease

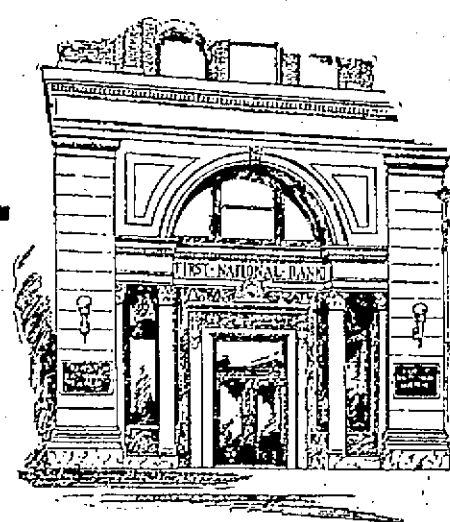

You can quickly stop that exhausting cough that lays you open to disease.

WIDEN your strength is exhausted and the delicate tissues of your throat and lungs are raw and sore from coughing, you may fall an easy prey to disease—bronchitis, pneumonia, even tuberculosis. That is why it is so important to break up coughs promptly.
For more than fifty years thousands of families have relied upon Dr. King's New Discovery to stop coughs. It does this quickly and naturally without any bad after-effects whatsoever. By stimulating the mucous membranes to throw off the clogging secretions. It has an agreeable taste. All druggists.

OBITUARY

Alexander Francis Henry.
Alexander Francis Henry, the second child of Augustus Francis and Marie Rose (Gaudin) Henry, was born in Houliette, France, January 18, 1836. At the age of fifteen on October 6, 1851, with his parents, brother and two sisters, he left his native home for America. After a voyage of 61 days he reached New Orleans and by way of the Mississippi and Ohio rivers he reached Portsmouth, Ohio, then the western frontier. Here he began life's career by aiding his father in building a log cabin and making the first clearing for corn. Without the advantage of a school he learned to read and write English fluently and thereby became a leader in his community. In 1857 he was united in marriage to Margaret Jeanguenat. To this union four children were born. All except the eldest daughter, have preceded him in death. The first great trial of his life came with the death of his beloved wife in 1865, when he was left with the care of his little family.

In 1887 he was united in marriage to Mary Henry, who also preceded him in death on July 13, 1916. In 1906 Mr. Henry decided to quit farming in Ohio and move to West Brooklyn, Illinois, which has since been his home. After living three years with the children, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Barlow, Mr. and Mrs. Henry bought the house of Thomas Cook, which was their happy home until July, 1916, when his beloved wife departed from this life. After the death of his wife he lived with his children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Gehant. Mr. Henry in spite of his inability to write, always spoke the word that dispelled sorrow. He was grandpa, to all who knew him, and his little French songs won many a smile from those who visited with him.

Although he was a leader and respected citizen in his community his faithfulness in following the dictates of the Catholic church taught his fellow-men that faith in God is the pathway of wisdom.

During the last week of August Mr. Henry suffered a sinking spell due to old age, from which he never fully recovered. On Friday morning, October 26, 1923, the immediate members of the family saw a startling decline in his condition. Early in the afternoon he lapsed into unconsciousness and remained so until the angel of death touched him at five o'clock in the afternoon, at the age of 87 years, 9 months and 18 days.

No leaves to mourn his loss one daughter, Mrs. F. J. Gehant, eighteen grandchildren and twenty-nine great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on October 29, 1923, at ten o'clock from St. Mary's church with interment beside his wife in St. Mary's cemetery at West Brooklyn, Illinois.

Mrs. Sarah Kuqua.
Rev. John Collins Jackson returned last night from Springfield, where he had been called to attend the funeral of his oldest sister, Mrs. Sarah Kuqua. Mrs. Kuqua was 90 years old at the time of her death and had been ill only a few days. She is survived by two sisters and three brothers, whose individual ages average more than 75 years.

Mrs. Adams Funeral.
The funeral of Mrs. Richard Adams was held at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Davidson at South Point, directly across the Ohio River, Saturday at ten a. m., and was conducted by the Rev. G. Monroe Horton, former pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city of which Mrs.

Adams was a member. Mr. Horton was assisted by the Rev. B. S. Akers, well-known minister of Ceredo, Ashland Independent.

SOCIETY

Simplicity of detail and quiet beauty marked the wedding of Miss Ruth Gene Atlas and Rabbi Binstock, which occurred this afternoon at the handsome home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Atlas, 1401 Kinney's Lane.

The impressive ring ceremony was solemnized at half after one o'clock by Dr. Solomon Freehof of Cincinnati, in the presence of only the immediate family and the principals. There were no attendants. The bride and groom leaving immediately after the ceremony on a wedding trip through the East. Upon their return they will take up their residence in Baltimore, Maryland, where the groom is assistant rabbi of the B'nai B'rith Jewish Temple, one of the largest and most fashionable in Baltimore.

Out-of-town relatives here for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. J. Binstock and daughter Sylvia, of Memphis, Tenn., parents and sister of the groom, and Mrs. Jay S. Goodman and son, Paul Fisher Goodman, sister and nephew of the bride, of Chattanooga, Tennessee.

The regular meeting of Division 483 G. I. A. will be held Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock at the K. of P. Hall. All members are urged to be present.

The Loyal Beroans of the First Christian church have postponed their meeting scheduled for this evening until next Tuesday evening, when it will meet at the home of Mrs. C. H. Smith, 1352 Twelfth street.

Section Three of the First Christian church will hold an all day meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Joe Barber, of near Lucasville. A feature of the meeting will be a chicken dinner that will be served at noon.

The Frances Badger Guild of All Saints church held a most enjoyable meeting Monday afternoon in the very attractive home of Mrs. L. D. Huestis on Hutcheson street. During the business session a sum of $200 was voted to be added to a savings account towards a new church, and a donation was made to Hopedale Rescue Home. A large box of all new table linens, towels, warm bedding and sheets and pillow cases are being made up by the members to be sent next week to Grace Mission in Virginia. The treasurer reported the recent rummage sale to total $182.65.

On Wednesday evening at the church supper the ladies will have a table of home made cakes, bread and candies for sale. After the business session was over a social hour was enjoyed over the cups and they later adjourned to meet in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Edward Leach of New Fifth street.

Little Willie Rapp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rapp of City View, sustained slight injuries Sunday when a newspaper he was holding caught fire, burning his fingers and singeing his eyebrows badly.

The Hope Circle Class of the Calvary Baptist church will meet in regular session this evening at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Henry Tyles, 1013 Seventeenth street. All members are urged to be present.

Court House

JUSTICE TO WAIVE JURY

William Justice, under indictment for manufacturing distilled liquor unlawfully, who is to be brought to trial before Judge Thomas and a jury in Common Pleas court Thursday, indicated today through his attorney, W. R. Sprague, his intention to either change his plea from not guilty to guilty or waive right of trial by jury and submit his case to the court. Justice is the second person to be indicted by a Scioto county grand jury under a new statute for manufacturing liquor, penalty for which is imprisonment in the penitentiary.

GOING BACK AFTER WEST

Sheriff Harry M. Dunham will leave Wednesday for Harrisburg, Pa., to be present at the habeas corpus hearing before the district court. Friday, William H. West, recently arrested in the Pennsylvania capital, who is wanted here to answer to a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

It is claimed that West obtained the sum of $3,500 by procuring the names of John Mason and other local men, to a joint note by alleged false representations last May when he staged an indoor circus at the winter garden under the auspices of the Grotto. West, according to the sheriff, is stubbornly resisting efforts to return him to Ohio to face the complaint.

According to advice received by Sheriff Dunham today, West defrauded prominent Grotto members of Huntington out of more than $4,000 in a similar manner, besides, it has been learned, the man is wanted in other cities.

Will Be Brought to Trial

The petit jury will come back for service in Common Pleas Court Wednesday morning, when William Evans, negro, will be put on trial under an indictment charging him with cutting with intent to kill Agnes Williams, colored.

Jealousy is said to have caused the trouble which occurred at Lakeside, New Boston, last July, when Evans is alleged to have slashed the woman several times with a knife. The Williams woman is now incarcerated in the county jail at Gallipolis to meet a pocket-picking charge and she will be brought here under guard to testify in the case.

The accused will be defended by Attorney Theodore K. Funk and Prosecutor S. A. Skelton will handle the case for the state.

Amounts to General Denial

The answer of The Portsmouth Street Railway and Light Company to the suit of Mary Thomas amounts to a general denial of the allegations made by plaintiff in her petition. Plaintiff recently sued through Attorney Pearle V. Eichelberger for $3,000 damages for personal injuries she claims to have sustained when thrown from a street car at West Avenue, New Boston, last July. She claims the car started suddenly as she was attempting to leave it.

Rev. Hugh I. Evans Urges Local People To Hear Hon. Everett Colby

The committee upon the International Relations Conference that will be held at the local high school, Friday evening at eight o'clock, Rev. H. I. Evans, pastor of Second Presbyterian Church, is very fortunate in having Everett Colby address here. The reports that have been made of the work of this man in the sphere of international relations are very creditable. The citizens of Portsmouth should attend the meeting Friday night of this week at the high school auditorium for two very good reasons. The first is that he is an entertaining and nationally known speaker and a small attendance would reflect discredit upon our citizenship, but a greater reason is found in the fact that this man is here in the interest of world-wide peace. Every man and woman in our city who desires the end of war and the coming of the day of peace should be present to hear Mr. Colby. Personally, I should like to see a packed house.

Reports from local conferences on international relations, received by Rev. E. H. Dyer, president of the Ministerial Association, indicate that capacity crowds have greeted the speakers in other cities.

At the local meeting Friday night at eight o'clock, the Boys' Glee Club of the high school, under the direction of Miss Esther Stierlingham, will furnish special musical selections. There will be no admission charges and the public generally is urged to attend.

Hon. Everett Colby Will Address Kiwanis Club At Noon Meet Friday

Members of the Kiwanis club will take notice the regular Wednesday meeting of the club will be held on Friday noon of this week at the Kiwanis club house. The speaker will be Hon. Everett Colby, former national committeeman of the Republican party and now engaged in religious work. Mr. Colby has just returned from an extensive tour of Europe and gave careful study there. The subject of his address will be "The World Wide Peace and America's Duty to Europe." Mr. Colby is being brought to Portsmouth under invitation and the provisions of the Ministerial Association. He is one of the big men of the country and is assured of splendid hearings, both at the Kiwanis club and at the high school. He speaks at the latter place on Friday evening.

Pythians To Hold Homecoming At South Webster

Tomorrow, Wednesday night, the Knights of Pythias of South Webster, will hold their annual Homecoming meeting when a program of entertainment will be given for members, their families and friends. H. Mittenfiorf is chairman of the committee in charge. Ives Lodge of Minford will hold their Homecoming November 16.

FIRE DAMAGES BIG TRUCK

The fire companies from the Seventh and Gallia street stations responded to a call shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon to extinguish a blaze in an international truck owned by the Warner-Wall Transfer Company when in the firm's garage at the C and O freight station, Fourth street.

The fire, which was started by a short circuit, was quickly suppressed by hand chemicals though the wiring system was damaged to the extent of about $100.

MOHR SCORED LONE TOUCHDOWN

Kermit Frecka, of Ironton, telephoned The Times Tuesday that it was not he who scored the lone touchdown against Logan, W. Va., and that the credit should go to "Dutch" Mohr, of the Tanks. Frecka says he will take up college football next season and for this reason is not playing professional football.

Held To Grand Jury

CHILLICOTHE, O., Nov. 6.—Although defense counsel bitterly fought the case all the way through, four Adelphi youths, Harter Seymour, Pearl Spunkman, Herman Imber and Herman Davis, were bound over to the grand jury under $1000 each from Mayor Minshall's court on charges of robbery in connection with the hold up of J. Jugo-Slavia Sends Ultimatum To Sofia;

Makes Three Demands

BELGRADE, Nov. 6.—(By the A. P.)—Jugo-Slavia, in a note presented at Sofia this morning, gave Bulgaria 48 hours in which to fill three demands for reparation in consequence of the attack on the Jugo-Slav military attaché at Sofia Friday.

The conditions—First, the Bulgarian government must present its excuses and regrets to the Jugo-Slav representative in Sofia; second, the Bulgarian minister of war must express his personal regrets to the Jugo-Slav military attaché, and third, a detachment of 250 Bulgarian soldiers with a flag must render honors before the Jugo-Slav legation.

Two additional demands are for an energetic invitation to fine and punish those guilty of the attack and for an indemnity to be determined by the International Court at The Hague.

The note states that the attack is regarded as a political crime.

"If Winter Comes" In Glorious Debut As Screen Production

Story in Hutchinson Book Strengthened by Cafe and Good Taste Shown in Fox Photoplay

At the Eastland Theater last evening the writer was given an opportunity to pass judgment on the screen version of the Hutchinson story "If Winter Comes," which William Fox has produced under the direction of Harry Millarde.

The verdict was overwhelmingly in favor of the picture. Readers of the book were delighted to find that the qualities which had made it such a popular success were all included in the screen version, heightened by the magic touch of the camera and shown against a background of the actual localities written of by the author. The care and good taste displayed in every detail of the photoplay "If Winter Comes" are things to be thankful for. From the skilful handling of the scenery to the selection of the members of the excellent cast and the shooting, fitting and cutting of the film each step in putting the novel into picture form is marked by a fine artistic sense and strict fidelity to the famous story.

Mark Saire, in the sympathetic hands of Percy Marston, leaves a living reality—the man to the life as drawn by the author. All the whimsical beauties of the character and the firmness of purpose that makes Mark do what he thinks is right regardless of consequences are brought out by the actor with telling effect. Ann Forrest as Nina, Margaret Fielding as Mabel, Gladys Leslie as Ethel, Raymond Bloomer as Lord Tyler, Dorothy Allen as High Jinks and Eleanor Daniels as Liza Jinks appear to have stepped out of the pages of the book.

A VALUE EVENT WHICH COMMANDS YOUR ATTENTION

Among DRESSES priced from $25 and upward, here Miss Lady in quest of the really exclusive, finds both restrict and abandon; modes that are conservative, well bred, classic, distinguished, modes that are novel, extreme, bizarre, unique. And she knows their presentation here admits them to the charmed inner circle of the finer fashions, too, whose lustre will "carry-on" through a Kline Quality that forever remains the same, at an expenditure within reach of all.

WISCONSIN AND ILLINOIS ELEVENS CLASH NEXT SATURDAY

Michigan Tackles The U. S. Marines

CHICAGO, November 6.—Western conference football teams will go into action this week with a strong probability that Illinois and Michigan will call the season undefeated and championship honors as did Iowa and Michigan last year.

Wisconsin started to prepare for the Illinois contest Saturday with their scouts' unqualified praise of the sensational "Red" Grange, Illinois ace, ringing in their ears. The entire week will be devoted to devising ways and means to stop Grange.

Michigan will play the United States Marines Saturday, but is devoting a lot of time to preparation for the two remaining conference games, that with Wisconsin and Minnesota, November 24. Illinois has a game with Ohio State on November 24, which may prove a stumbling block to their ambitions.

Minnesota, as yet undefeated, does not play this week, but besides Michigan, must face Iowa, one of the strongest teams in the conference despite its elimination from the championship race.

The defeated Chicago eleven takes on Indiana here Saturday, with the Hoosiers on the short end of the deal. Ohio State and Purdue meet on about equal terms, but the latter having been relegated to second-class ratings.

Keeps Hair Combed Best Adds Gloss-Lustre

Put a little oil through your hair, once or twice a week, and it will make your hair soft and pliable. It will stay in place, any style you want it.

Just plain glycerine oil beats anything you can use for keeping stubborn, unruly or shampooed hair combed, and it gives the hair that neat, naturally glossy, refined effect. Glycerine oil is not sticky or greasy. It does not show on the hair or leave it stiff and artificial looking as waxy pastes and creams do. You can get glycerine oil at most any drug store. A two ounce bottle will last for months.—advertisement.

POLITICS VERSUS BUSINESS

IT'S a pretty story that comes from Washington regarding the Muscle Shoals political part in the affairs of the country, taking the story as having a basis of fact. It is familiar to all that the matter of passing control of Muscle Shoals to Henry Ford resolved itself into a partisan difference, Republican congressmen generally opposing it, while Democrats quite as generally favored.

Now, so Washington reports it, the project is to be turned over to the Detroit automobile manufacturer with gladsome unanimity. Because why? It is a neat and expeditious way of getting rid of Ford, the political ogre, as a presidential candidate. It seems there is a law that any person, who has a contractual agreement with the government, can not take an office thereunder. So if Ford accepts the project any presidential aspirations he may have will have to be shelved for good and aye, as the contract will run for 100 years or so. According to Washington gossip there is no doubt Ford will accept the Shoals, if they are tendered him. It is said it is his absorbing desire, the one great purpose of his life, to get the Shoals as he can convert them into a mighty engine for the prosperity and glory of the country.

A STRANGE PEOPLE

THERE were two floggings in the jail yard at Wilmington, Delaware, Saturday. The gates were thrown open for the spectacle, but not a single spectator came to witness the lashings.

Strange people must be those of the tight little state. Apparently they have neither curiosity nor mercy. One of the men flogged, underwent the punishment just prior to being transported to the penitentiary, there to begin a sentence of 23 years for highway robbery. Such confinement for such a crime is certainly unusual and flogging on the bare back is indisputably cruel. So thus the Delawareans, in both respects violate the federal constitution, which says no cruel and unusual punishment shall be inflicted upon persons convicted of crimes.

That, however, is not so peculiar as is the fact that not a single Wilmingtonian had enough interest to go and witness the barbarous whipping. And Wilmington is a city of over 100,000.

Evidently Delaware needs some Americanization, not the least of which is the inculcating of constitutional principles and interest in the unfortunate.

Send the news to Ironton. Work was begun, yesterday, in removing the debris from the site of Portsmouth's "new hotel and modern in every respect." Can't head this man's town off. She's on her way to be the biggest between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati as she is already the best.

May be there is nothing in a name, but we are glad in Memoriam won the big race at Covington, last week, and we haven't a reason in the world to be so except we "just sorter" feel some attraction in the winner's name.

"Tis said they couldn't get even the Kentuckians excited about the election this year.

It's kind of Cincinnati to ask the rest of the state to vote more taxes upon itself for her sole behoof and benefit, but we have a hunch she will wake up tomorrow morning to find her request has been rejected with much enthusiasm.

The next uncertain thing is a horse race. For information apply to anyone who laid his money on the sure thing Zev. Day after tomorrow you might also see the man who bet on the election.

Looking it over, it isn't a far cry to suspicion that Lloyd George came here solely in the interest of one Lloyd George.

Times do change. Years ago every little blaze was made an opportunity to thrash against the fire department for political effect. Here at the eve of election we have a real fire and everybody stands around and says the fire ladders did fine work.

Twenty-four Years Ago

George Johnson, a farmer, sixty-nine years of age, was found hanging dead in his barn at Mineral Springs. Timothy Jewett closed a deal for 1,540 acres of fine timbered land in southwestern part of Scioto county.

Under the will of Colonel Thad Bett, probated at Greenup, his entire estate was given to his grand-children.

Harry Bannon defeated Ed K. Walsh for prosecuting attorney by 872 and Lon Tatum won over W. A. Cox by 1,011. They will leave Wednesday for Mississippi to accompany Mrs. Blair.

over O. M. Cullen for representative by 616.

Harry Hall beat James G. Haslam for probate judge by 1,227 and Green Neary won for commissioner over Dan Egbert by 530. Nash carried Scioto county over McLean by a plurality of 1,157.

Car Repainted
Donald, Blair, of Lawson street, who recently left for Detroit, to get his car, which he sent there to be repainted, will return home today. He will leave Wednesday for Mississippi to accompany Mrs. Blair.

New York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MONTYRE

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Chorus girls who go in for nuptial flights with wastrel sons of the rich rarely find their lot a bed of orchids. The hectic romances are usually abruptly ended by the sons being carted off to a sanatorium and the girls writing "What I Endured as the Wife of a Millionaire" for the Sunday papers.

The formula is about the same. An after theatre cocktail party and a romp to the parson at Greenwich at dawn's first blush. There are a few weeks of honeymooning about cabarets and then Dad cuts off the allowance and talks only through his attorneys.

The chorus finds her vacancy filled at the theatre and she goes with friends to husband her wrath for the final sting—alimony or what have you. She finds every move a fight, and she is not alone in her fight. The girl who goes on the stage as a stepping stone to a matrimonial career are generally disillusioned and sudden impact with the realities of life drives them to drink or to the streets. The public is not very sympathetic. It's emotion is spent in cynical smiles.

A Broadway historian has discovered that out of a total of six hundred marriages of this sort four years ago not a single couple lives together at this time. Instead of living on a fare of champagne and plover they have thin biscuits and water.

They haven't enough money to hire first rate lawyers and the stars they employ are easily bought off by the enemy. Only today I note the death of a chorus girl who 15 years ago married a millionaire. She died out-of-debt and shabbily—the cupboard bare. He married again and lives in splendor.

Rain at theatre time causes a heavy loss along the Rialto. Recently a shower sprung up for five days at the ending curtain hour. To offset this, producers made arrangements with taxicab companies of repute to carry patrons to the play free. Theatrical advertisements now bear this announcement: "If it should rain tonight between 7:30 and 8:30, call a taxicab and you will be carried free of charge to the theatre."

The husband who told his wife he had the softest job in New York—all he had to do was stick his head in a lion's mouth a minute twice a day—has very little on a man whose sole job is to mount the flag pole on the top of the Singer building once a month and gild it.

People who work very little, I have learned from experience, do not like to be prodded about it. I feel a gentle blush mounting when one of those brisk "Do it now" persons asks how much time is required to do my daily chore. Sometimes it takes fifteen minutes and other times a full two hours. My alibi is that the rest of my time is spent thinking and the day I am asked "Thinking what?" I am going to be stumped.

The other day I told my wife, who is unusually sympathetic, that I feared a breakdown from overwork, and when she burst into a gale of laughter I decided to sulk. I stayed at my typewriter for four hours, one sitting. "Poor dear," she said afterward, "you have had a hard day, haven't you?" I'll say it was a hard day. Just try to fill up five pages with "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party" to make your wife think you're working and you'll see.

The actor with the softest job in town has been appearing for nine months in a drama. He is the victim of an accidental bullet shortly after the curtain goes up and dies without saying a word. A lot of other actors would do well to receive the same treatment. (Copyright 1923, by The McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

NOVEMBER

November's here!
Ring out the bells of autumn cheer!
Forsooth, the softly fleeting year,
In his rich riddim of days,
Wears not a jewel whose glinting rays
Can o'er surpass in dazzling glow
This glad November that we know!

November's here!
The dying leaves grow brown and
The end of nature's bloom is near;
You nibble o' hard gleams mostly
While
There in the harvest moon's calm light;
Ah, sings the song full sweet and low
For sad November that we know!

November's here!
How patiently the corn stalks rear
Their heavy heads, while frost sprides
leer
Upon them from their new-built homes,
Through which the youthful dewdrop
rooms.
Ah, all too swiftly will it go,
This dear November that we know!
—The Puritan.

The Tragedy

"Yes, Jones and his wife have separated, and all on account of a dream."

"What! Are they that superstitious?"

"I dunno about that; but she is. Jones called 'Mabel' a couple of times in his sleep one night and his wife was awake."

"But what about the dream?"

"That's it; he was dreaming he was in Chicago, and his wife's name is Lucy." — Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Perfectly Capable

Not so long ago a bunch of gunmen started a reign of terror in a certain Texas town, and the terror-stricken mayor wired frantically to the governor for Texas Rangers to restore peace. A special train came down from the capital and one lonely Ranger stepped out.

"Where's the rest of the outfit?" demanded the mayor and the sheriff. "Rest, hell," replied the Ranger mildly. "You ain't got but one riot going on here, have you?"

MOVIE OF A MAN WAITING FOR A GUEST—BY BRIGGS

Translated
The American cavalryman carries enough equipment to tempt him to desert and open a hardware store, among the articles being a picket pin for anchoring the horse while grazing, a nose bag for that stout and a carry-all, with which the military plug gets his daily manure.

At an unexpected inspection one day an Italian recruit with a scanty knowledge of English was caught short in several articles. The inspecting lieutenant noticed the deficiencies. "Well, Giovanni, what have you lost?" he asked pleasantly. "Sir," was the answer, "I no gotta da piccolo pin, da horse's messkit, or da cease-sprol-in."
